6. Declaration

I wish to join Headington RoadRunners. I will receive a copy of the club handbook and agree to abide by the rules stated in the club constitution.

I confirm that I am an amateur as defined in article iv and understand that Headington RoadRunners cannot be held responsible for any injuries I may receive whilst participating in any club training session or event.

I understand that my personal details will be held on computer by the club solely for the purposes of club administration, management and communication. An appropriate third party may be used to print name and address labels so that the HRR newsletter can be correctly posted to my address.

If I choose to affiliate to England Athletics my details will be passed onto UK Athletics and used for the benefit of athletics. Competition providers will be granted access to data necessary for their event, and data will be shared with partners in athletics for athletics managements purposes only. A copy of my personal details as held by HRR is available from the membership secretary and can be made available for review on each annual renewal.
